Cleveland's Surplus.

The country was startled the other day by the reported declaration of the treasurer of the United States, James W. Hyatt, "that there was no surplus in the treasury." He stated that the appropriations made by Congress, or involved in the bills passed and now pending, are within $17,000,000 of the estimated revenues. In addition to these appropriations, unexpended in their extravagance, the treasurer reminds the country that there is an interest-bearing debt of $1,000,000,000 to be provided for, and which he says can be economically reduced by bond purchase at any time.

The fact has thus leaked out through the treasurer that Mr.
 Cleveland's buncombe, surplus, golit-alone message is dead political capital; that his friends in the House of Representatives have been drawing out to such an extent as to make the treasurer nervous, and that the thunder of the Mills bill has suddenly been shown to be mere sheet-iron noise, with nothing to stand upon. Yet of all this no word is to be read in the Democratic papers. They are as silent as the proverbial clam, and have about the same bad case of lock-jaw.

Cleveland's Appointees.

In a recent speech Governor Foster of Ohio, using as his data the record, compiled by the New York Tribune, gave this summarized account of Mr. Cleveland's civil service career. The Tribune's record has been before the public for weeks and has not been successfully attacked. Governor Foster's speech seems likewise impregnable.
 He says:

"He has appointed to office 137 men who have been indicted and convicted of crime. Two of them were murderers, five of them were duellists, seven of them were forgers; three of them were rioters, a number of them were keepers of houses of ill-fame, a number of them committed frauds on the revenue service, a number of them had been guilty of petty larceny, one of them had been in the workhouse for stealing a dog, a number of them had been convicted for robbing mails and postoffices, and one of them was appointed to take charge of a postoffice while yet in jail for having robbed it. Almost every crime known to the law is named in the list of crimes committed by these appointees."

The Canadian press seem to have placed just the right estimate on Mr. Cleveland's somersault message. The London (Ont.) Free Press describes his position concisely, as follows: "The United States President seems to be reduced to a very sad dilemma indeed when he allows himself to put forth such a document as that just issued. And he neutralizes all the arguments that he advances in favor of retaliation when he admits that the terms of the fisheries treaty to which Canada and Great Britain were parties a few weeks ago, were well suited to meet the claims that the United States had set up in regard to the fisheries, and to abate the disadvantages which they had complained of."

The imposition and slights which the President has put upon the nation and the humiliations under which he has allowed it suffer, have existed during the full period of his administration. Only when the questions are about to be passed upon at the ballot box has he taken to publishing his reviled opinions of them and to feigning a virtue which he knows he has not. If the Chinese question upon this coast has not been settled, whose fault is it?

CLEVELAND'S LETTER.

Mr. Hyatt's Surplus Bagahoe and Discountenance the Importation of Laborers.

The GAZETTE publishes to-day for the benefit of its Democratic readers, who may derive some comfort from its perusal, a synopsis of President Cleveland's acceptance of the nomination to the Presidency:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Hon. Patrick Collins and others of the Committee—GENTLEMEN: In addressing to you my formal acceptance of the nomination to the Presidency of the United States, my thoughts persistently dwell upon the impressive relation of such action to the American people, whose confidence is thus united, and the political party to which I belong just entering upon a contest for continued supremacy. The world does not afford a spectacle more sublime than is furnished when millions of free and intelligent American citizens select their Chief Magistrate and one of their number to find the highest earthly honor and full measure of public duty in ready submission to their will.

Among these are the regulation of a sound financial system suited to our needs, thus securing a sufficient agency of national wealth and general prosperity; the construction and equipment of means of defense to insure our national safety and maintain the honor beneath which such national safety reposes; protection of our national domain, still stretching beyond the needs of the century's expansion, and its preservation for the settlers and pioneers of our marvelous growth; sensible and sincere recognition of the value of American labor leading to scrupulous care and just appreciation of interests of our workmen; limitation and checking of such monopolistic tendencies and schemes as interfere with the advantages and benefits which the people rightfully claim; generous regard and care for our surviving soldiers and sailors and for the widows and orphans of such as have died, to the end that while appreciation of their services and sacrifices is quickened the application of their pension funds to improper cases may be prevented; protection against servile immigration which injuriously competes with our laboring men in the field of toil, and adds to our population an element ignorant of our institutions and laws, impossible of assimilation with our people and dangerous to our peace and welfare; strict and steady adherence to principles of civil service reform and the thorough execution of laws passed.

Our Government is a creation of the people, established to carry out their designs and accomplish their good. It was founded on justice and was made for a free, intelligent and virtuous people. It is only useful when within their control, and only serves them well when regulated and guided by their constant touch. It is a free Government because it guarantees to every American citizen unrestricted personal use and enjoyment of all rewards of his toil and of all his income, except what may be his fair contribution to necessary public expense.

Therefore it is not only the right but the duty of a free people in the enforcement of this guarantee to insist that such expense should be strictly limited to actual public needs. It seems perfectly clear that when a Government thus instrumentally created and maintained by a people to do their bidding, turns upon them and through an utter perversion of its powers exacts from their labor and capital tribute largely in excess of public necessities, the creature has rebelled against the creator and masters are robbed by their servants.

The cost of the Government must continue to be met by tariff duties collected at our custom houses upon imported goods and by internal revenue taxes assessed upon spirituous and malt liquors, tobacco and oleomargarine. I suppose it is needless to explain that all these duties and assessments are added to the price of articles upon which they are levied and thus become a tax upon all those who buy these articles of use and consumption. I suppose, too, it is well understood that the fact of this tariff taxation is not limited to consumers of imported articles but duties imposed on such articles permits a corresponding increase in the price to be made upon domestic productions of the same kind; which are paid by all our people as consumers of such productions, and entering every American home, constitute a form of taxation as certain and inevitable as though the amount was annually paid into the hands of tax gatherers.

Taxation has always been a feature of organized government the hardest to reconcile with the people's ideas of freedom and happiness. When presented indirectly nothing will arouse popular discontent more quickly and profoundly than unjust and unnecessary taxation. Our farmers, mechanics, laborers, and all citizens closely scan the slightest increase in taxes assessed upon their land and other property, and demand good reasons for such increase, and yet they seem to be expected in some quarters to regard the unnecessary volume of insidious and indirect taxation visited upon them by our present rate of tariff duties with indifference if not with favor.

The surplus revenue now remaining in the treasury not only furnishes conclusive evidence of unjust taxation, but its existence constitutes a separate and independent menace to the prosperity of the people. This vast accumulation of idle funds represents that much money is drawn from the circulating medium of the country, which is needed in the channels of trade and business. It is a great mistake to suppose that the consequences which follow the continual withdrawal and hoarding by the Government of the currency of the people are not of immediate importance to the mass of our citizens, and only concerns those engaged in large financial transactions. In restless enterprises and activities which free and ready money among the people produces, is found that opportunity for labor and employment and that impetus to business and production which bring in their train prosperity to our citizens in every station and vocation. New ventures, new investments in business and manufacture, the construction of new and important works, and the enlarging of enterprise already established depend largely upon obtaining money upon easy terms with fair security. All these things are stimulated by an abundant volume of the circulating medium.

In reviewing the had effects of this accumulated surplus and the scale of tariff rates by which it is produced, we must not overlook the tendency toward gross and scandalous public extravagance which a congested treasury induces; nor the fact that we are maintaining without excuse in time of profound peace substantially the rate of tariff duties imposed in time of war, when the necessities of the Government justified the imposition of weighty burdens upon the people.
 Divers plans have been suggested for a return of this accumulated surplus to the people and the channels of trade. Some of these devices are at variance with all rules of good finance, some are delusive, some absurd, and some betray by their reckless extravagance the demoralizing influence of a great surplus of public money upon the judgments of individuals. While such efforts should be made as are consistent with public duty and sanctioned by sound judgment to avoid danger by a useful disposition of the surplus now remaining in the treasury, it is evident that if its distribution were accomplished another accumulation would soon take its place if the constant flow of redundant income was not checked at its source by reform in our present tariff laws.

Our people ask relief from the undue and unnecessary burden of taxation now resting upon them. They are offered free tobacco and free whisky.
 They ask for bread and are given a stone. The implication in this party declaration that desperate measures are justified or necessary to save from destruction or surrender what is termed our protective system, should confuse no one.

While the interest of labor should be always sedulously regarded, in any modification of our tariff laws an additional and more direct and efficient protection to these interests would be afforded by the restriction and prohibition of immigration or importation of laborers from other countries who swarm upon our shores, having no purpose or intent of becoming our fellow citizens or acquiring any permanent interest in our country, but who crowd every field of employment with unintelligent labor, which ought not to satisfy those who make claim to American citizenship.

Catholic Affairs in Spain.

MADRID, Sept. 10.—The monks of Fuenterabia Convent, who were ordered expelled from Spain for being connected with the Carlist propaganda, have sent a petition to the Queen promising to refrain from agitation. The Papal Nuncio here has assured the Government that the Pope will check the Carlist clergy. Repressive steps have therefore, been abandoned by the clergy.

Neil Warner.

Neil Warner, who will appear at McKissick's Opera House in a round of favorite characters during Fair week, is said to be an English tragedian and melodramatic actor of great ability. His first appearance in this country was in New York, in 1860, playing "Othello," after which he made a tour of the Eastern cities. In 1870 he appeared in San Francisco, receiving the highest tributes of praise from press and public for his artistic work. After his California engagement he went to Brooklyn, where he played at the ill-fated Brooklyn Theater, assuming all the leading heavy parts, and from there went to Canada, where he achieved the greatest amount of success. As a Shakespearean actor and elocutionist he is said to be worthy of being in the foremost place, and as an artist in the school of melodrama he is without a peer. Mr. Warner will be supported by a powerful and carefully selected company, and for the initial performance will present "Ingonar, the Barbarian."

THE PYTHIAN LEADER.

Reception Tendered Last Evening to the Chief of the Uniform Rank.

The members of Amity Lodge No. 8, K. of P., tendered an informal reception last evening in Masonic Hall to Major General James R. Carnahan, Commander in Chief of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, an organization which now numbers over 23,000 members. Dr. Bergstein delivered the address of welcome, and introduced the distinguished Pythian to the brethren and visitors assembled. General Carnahan then delivered an eloquent and instructive address on the objects and aims of the Order, which was attentively listened to throughout and heartily applauded at its conclusion. Speech-making over, those assembled adjourned to the Palace restaurant where a banquet was indulged in.

General Carnahan is on a tour of inspection of the various divisions of the Uniform Rank, and is now on his return to Indianapolis, having, with the exception of the division at Eureka, where he will go from here, visited every division on the Pacific Coast. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the reception accorded him wherever he has been and enthusiastically predicts that the Uniform Rank will soon number 40,000 men.

Make No Mistake.

By dispelling the symptoms so often mistaken for consumption, Santa Abie has brought gladness to many a household. By its prompt use for breaking up the cold that too often develops into that fatal disease, thousands can be saved from an untimely grave.

You make no mistake by keeping a bottle of this pleasant remedy in your home. California Cat-It-Cure is equally effective in eradicating all traces of Natul Catarrh. Both of these wonderful California remedies are sold and warranted by Osburn & Shoemaker at 18 a package, three for $2.50.

Ayer's Ague Cure acts directly on the liver and biliary apparatus, and drives out the malarial poison which induces liver complaints and bilious disorders. Warranted to cure or money refunded. Try it.

A GREAT PROJECT.

The Waters of Lakes Independence, Webber and Donner to be Impounded.

The great scarcity of water the present season, while disastrous in its effects to many of the farmers on the Truckee Meadows, has been productive of a great deal of discussion which will ultimately result in much good, and several projects of great advantage to the entire community are now being advocated by the sufferers of the water famine. Among the many broached the plan for draining Lakes Independence, Donner and Webber meets with the most favor, and in all probability the good work will be pushed to completion before the present year gives place to 1889. The plan is to obtain the right to construct dams at the outlets of the lakes named for the purpose of impounding the water which accumulates in them during the winter months until such time as it is needed.

Many of the leading farmers on the Meadows have expressed their desire to contribute the sum necessary for the preliminary operations, and in this they will be assisted by several well-known lumbering firms who have extensive interests in the vicinity of the lakes. The work proposed is the intention of its projectors to then endeavor to have the next Legislature take the scheme under the protecting wing of the State, which shall reimburse the farmers for the amount of money expended, and assume control of the distribution of the waters impounded.

IN A QUANDARY.

Local Candidates for Democratic Nomors Not Very Platonic.

Last evening the members of the Reno delegation to the late Democratic County Convention again essayed to place a ticket of township officers in the field. Owing to the fact that the proceedings were not made public a GAZETTE reporter was unable to-day to get an authoritative account of the causes which led to the nominations being again postponed, but the same little bird which has been so kind to him in the past, has this time rescued and gave him a synopsis of the star-chamber proceedings. It would appear that the main reason for inaction was on account of the absence of many of the delegates, and great difficulty was encountered in securing a sufficient number of patriots to secure a quorum.

Charles Gulling's declaration to run for the office of County Clerk also had a depressing effect, and after discussing the dark future which politically awaits them, they decided to adjourn until after the County Central Committee meets, when the cases of Gilling will be disposed of, it being the desire of the township delegates to place him on the ticket for School Trustee if the County Central Committee accepts his declaration.

For Justice of the Peace the name of Captain J. S. Gilson was favorably discussed, and it is probable that he will be the unlucky victim selected to cope against Judge Young. For Constable Tom Wheeler has been decided upon, but it is not known whether that gentleman will care about being led to the Republican shambles for Chief Upon to slaughter.

The San Francisco Crooks.

Detective Silva arrived from San Francisco last evening for the purpose of escorting to that city Henry Appel and William O'Brien, the young San Francisco crooks arrested Saturday evening by the local constabulary. The detective this morning proceeded to Carson for the purpose of filing the necessary papers, and will return in time to take the west-bound train this evening. This morning the prisoners sent for Colonel R. H. Lindsay and endeavored to have him undertake the task of getting them out of durance on writs of habeas corpus. He explained to them that an effort of that kind could not result in success, and the defendants are now resigned to their fate. Detective Silva says the authorities of San Francisco have a clear case of burglary against the accused and that the prospects of their serving a long term in the State Prison are very flattering.

The Lake Estate.

T. V. Julien, C. S. Martin and C. W. Jones have been appointed commissioners to partition the property of the Lake estate between the heirs, Myron W. Lake, William Thompson, and Mrs. Jane Lake. The estate has been in process of settlement for the past four years and the administrator's and attorneys' fees have amounted to over $20,000. The property to be distributed is valued at about $150,000.

Quite Likely.

Judge Sewell, the Democratic nominee for Justice of the Supreme Court, is reported by the Carson Tribune to have departed for his California home last Sunday evening. The same paper also states that "he looked somewhat tired and like longing for where he will probably stay in the future."

Very Pleasant so Far.

The Virginia Chronicle of yesterday's issue has the following "news" about the State Democratic Club, which met in Reno on Saturday night last: The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and when the State Club gets down to its work the objects of its organization will become unpleasantly apparent to the g. o. p. barnacles.

Their Business Rooming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Hodgkinson's drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test by buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

Pneumonia can be quickly and permanently cured by adding the powder to be found with each bottle of Fryer's true Abolition Cough Balsam. (They contain no opium). Price 75 cents. Sold by Wm. Shuster. All genuine Abolition Ointments bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

TOO LATE.

An Injunction Sought to Restrict Operations at the Lake Tahoe Dam.

The force of men who, under the direction of James Mayberry, are engaged in cleaning out the channel through which the waters of Lake Tahoe flow into the Truckee river of the accumulated debris, have nearly completed the work, and at the present time double the amount of water comes down than did prior to the commencement of operations. The firm of Yerlinton & Bliss, lumbermen at Lake Tahoe, however, object to the work being performed, fearing that the waters of Lake Tahoe will be lowered to such an extent as to interfere with their business, and have decided to have an injunction issued restraining the Mayberry crew from further interfering in the matter. Tremor Coffin of Carson is their attorney and last evening he departed for Auburn, the county seat of Placer county, Cal., for the purpose of having the necessary papers issued. By the time this is accomplished and the papers served the work will have been completed, and the crew will have accomplished nothing beyond earning his fee.

The Mayberry crew have not interfered in any manner whatsoever with the dam, etc., but have merely cleaned out the channel, which is several hundred feet in length and about thirty feet in width, leading from the lake to the river, of a large amount of debris which retarded the flow of water and in many instances acted as a breakwater, the result being that very little water during the present summer has come from the lake proper. The Truckee Meadows ranchers have accomplished their purpose, and all the Courts in Christendom cannot now make them undo it.

A Mining Enterprise Nipped in the Bud.

Bob Christy, the boot black, is back in Carson and cutting his old swath at Sweeney's corner. Saturday he explained to an Appeal reporter why he left Reno.

"Ye see, I got into a row one night on the train and swiped a man over the eye with a cane. I used to work the emigrant trains, and when there was so much excitement over the strike in the Langtry mine, I used to sell specimens of the ore to people on the train."

"Where did you get the ore?"

"Oh, I broke up some old rock around the depot and sprinkled it with copper bronze to give it a shine and sparkle and the pieces went like hot cakes. I'd just go through the trains and sing out 'specimens of ore from Mrs. Langtry's mine, four bits a piece, all genuine.' Lots of people would like to see them and lots would always buy. I cleaned four or five dollars a day selling specimens, and one big chunk of granite rock I had pretty well bruised, I sold at auction to a crowd of New York dudes. The lunatic that got it paid $17 and they wanted to know if I had any shares to sell. Some of the traveling people are pretty rank suckers, I tell you. The Renottes didn't like the prominence I was giving a Carson mine, and they would come in and shout that I was a fraud so as to break up my mining enterprise, and that's how I came to get one with my cane and got arrested. I'm out on bail of $400 and must go back soon to be tried. The Renottes are always dead against any enterprise that they don't start themselves."

POLITICAL POINTS.

Maine has been heard from.

In 1849 William Stewart was a candidate for Governor of California.

It was the Democratic Senators who prevented the passage of the Chinese Exclusion Act Friday.

The old Roman is sure that he was sober on Thursday night. He had the advantage of most of his audience.

General Carnahan, the eminent Pythian, says Indiana will roll up a majority of 10,000 for Harrison and Morton.

Bayard's letter to Manning will make interesting reading for the defenders of the Chinese part of the administration.

If "high wages mean cheap labor" why don't England put up wages to $10 a day, and run the cheap German goods out of her own markets?

The Democratic campaign in the East is in such a desperate condition that the administration turns in despair to Nevada. Nevada's answer is ready.

The Republicans sincerely regret that Mr. Thurman could not deliver that speech in New York. But for humanity's sake they will forego the advantage, rather than see the aged and feeble statesman risk his life.

For First Place.

A great amount of political engineering will be done by friends of candidates to secure for their man the first place on the ticket, and the best man will probably secure the coveted place. Then, if endorsed by the majority of the people, the election is assured. Electric Bitters has been put to the front, its merits passed upon, has been indorsed, and unanimously given the first place among remedies peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all diseases of the kidneys, liver and stomach. Electric Bitters, being guaranteed, is a safe investment. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle at Hodgkinson's drug store.

Fryer's Abolition Cough Balsam—A combination of the Gum Abietene, Verba Santa, and Mullein, guaranteed to cure Coughs, colds and all lung diseases. (It contains no opium). Price 75 cents. Sold by Wm. Shuster. All genuine Abolition Ointments bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

An Insane Man Franciscoan.

TUSCULA, Ill., Sept. 10.—An insane man taken in charge here today by the police gives the name of Charles William Clinton of San Francisco. He is unable to give the date when he left that city. It is thought he wandered away from home while laboring under temporary mental aberration. He says he has a son-in-law, Philip Donovan, at Fifty-sixth street, San Francisco.

Men and Women's Bases.

Joints and muscles may escape the agonizing tortures of rheumatism if they will but "take time by the forelock," and annihilate the symptoms of oncoming trouble with the benignant and highly sanctioned blood depurant and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Poisons mostly constitute the ordinary means of battling with atrocious complaint. Avoid the risk of using these by restoring to the safe as well as effectual anti-phlogistic and preventive. After exposure to damp, through drafts and other causes which encourage a rheumatic tendency, a wineglassful of the Bitters prevents ill effects. No surer preventive of malarial ailments like fever and ague, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake exists, and it is, besides, a most genial recuperator of strength exhausted by excessive mental or physical effort. Miners, mariners, operatives and others whose avocations involve laborious work in rough weather out of doors, or close application indoors, find it invaluable.

Fryer's Abolition Ointment—A combination of the Gum Abietene, Verba Santa, and Mullein, guaranteed to cure Coughs, colds and all lung diseases. (It contains no opium). Price 75 cents. Sold by Wm. Shuster. All genuine Abolition Ointments bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

TO MAKE KOUMISS.

The Way of Manufacturing It in Its Most

Renowned Perfection.

The Bashkirs of Russia are renowned for their skill in making koumiss, or fermented mare's milk, which is now extensively consumed by patients suffering from dyspeptic and wasting diseases, and so easy is it of digestion that it invalids drink tea, fifteen, and occasionally even twenty champagne bottles a day, while a Bashkir is able to overcome a couple of gallons at a sitting, and in an hour or two be ready for more.

To insure good koumiss it is essential that the mares be of the steppe breed, and fed on steppe pasture. They are milked from four to eight times a day, the foal being kept apart from the mother, and allowed to suck only in the night time.

The ma will not give her milk, however, unless at the time of milking her foal is brought to her side, when such is the joy of reunion that after sundry acts of loving and smelling and kissing, the maternal feeling shows itself by her sometimes giving milk from both sides at once.

Milking is done by the Bashkir women, who, taking a position close to the hind legs of the mare, rest on one knee and on the other support a pail directly under the udder, pulling at each nipple in turn, and receiving from three to four pints each time of milking.

To make koumiss the milk is beaten up in a churn (but not sufficiently to produce butter), and by fermentation is converted after twenty-four hours into weak kou-miss, from which condition after twelve hours more it passes into a medium degree of strength, while strong koumiss is produced by acidulous agitation of the milk for two or three days, and it is then said to be slightly intoxicating.

The Best Kind of Crop.

A Bostonian recently took a trip way down on Cape Cod.

He had occasion to drive from the station to his destination with a typical
"Cape Codder," one of those keen but not over-brilliant-looking sons of the sea-coast.

The Bostonian had noticed as they rode along the bleak country, with its uninviting fields and sandy strips of land, and finally said to his companion:

"I don't see how you live in this forlorn looking country. What do you raise down here, anyway?"

"Wall," was the drawing answer, "we plant schoolhouses and raise men."

Catching a Man-Eating Tiger.

A famous man-eating tiger was recently captured alive in India. A pit was dug for a trap and baited with a live bullock.

After two days the beast came around and promptly jumped into it.

To capture him a second pit was dug near the first and of the same depth.

From this a tunnel was run to the first pit, a thin wall of earth being left between the end of the tunnel and the pit.

A strong bamboo cage was pushed into this tunnel from a second pit. A trap was placed in the cage and the tiger earth was broken down.

The tiger sprang upon the bait, and entranced to the cage was quickly closed, and the beast was fast, and was to be seen in the cage.

CABIN SCENE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Maiden Who Wanted to Marry the Newspaper Man under the Shadows of Bald Mountain.

After proceeding about a mile and a half we reached the spot where the mill was to be located, and half a mile away was Dawson's cabin.

Dawson was a moonshiner. His family consisted of wife and three children, the oldest being a bare-footed, bare-legged girl of 16.

After being introduced, I was left to pass a couple of hours while Dawson returned to the men. He had explained to his wife who I was and what had happened, but the children were full of curiosity.

As I sat by the door smoking the girl, who was called Deb, sat down beside me and asked:

"Stranger, did you love it?" (come on foot).

"Yes."

"A mile or a so-down?"

"More'n that. About a dozen flopsups."

"A 'so-down' means half a day's travel.
A 'flop-up' means a day's tramp. At bed time the head of the house would say to the children:

"Come now, you'uns, it's flop-up time."
The girl looked at me in great surprise, and presently asked:

"You didn't come to shoot pop, 'cause if ye had you'd hev chucked (ambushed) him."

"No, I came to see you."

"Mam!—oh, mam!" she cried, "come out yere! Jist hear he's talkin'!"

"What does he'uns say?" asked the mother as she came out with her pipe and sat down.

"He's honey! I dun tole ye when that wish bone fell down that he'uns was comin'! Hipl! Hain't he'uns nice, ma?"

"He's honey, fur shore," said the mother, after glancing at me. "But he'uns must ax pop fur yer. Can't go on-less pop says so. Say, stranger, did ye come to take Deb away? Did somebody tell ye we wanted her to get mar'd?"

"No. I fell in with your husband and his friends on the road and he asked me to stop over night."

"Hipl! And you'uns don't want to marry me!" shouted Deb.

"I can't, my child."

"Mebbe ye'uns is forwardly (already) jined?" queried the mother.

"Hipl! and I sot stoh store by he'uns!" wailed Deb, as she sat down and began to cry.

"Now, Deb, you shet!" scolded the mother. "If he'uns is forwardly jined, how kin he be jined agin? 'Taint in natur, you know."

"He'uns had no call (business) to be jined!" sobbed Deb.

"Pore chile!" sighed the mother.
"Deb's increased (very smart) for her age, stranger. She's look'n higher'n most gals fur a husband. She doan't kee-r two wrinkles fur nobody 'round yere."

"Oh, well, she's smart and good-looking, and she'll find a nice husband."

"Hipl! Ar' ye truthis!" exclaimed the girl as she sprang up. "And I'll git mar'd!"

"And have a real house?"

"And a real dress and bonnet?"

"And a gold ring?"

"Oh, mam! hear him! hear him! Hipl!
I can't sot still. Jist think of it, mam!"

"I'm a thinkin', Deb, and I know he's a trutin' Lor' bless him fur his goodness to us poor shuckless folkses."—De-

said to be slightly intoxicating.

down on Cape Cod.

He had occasion to drive from the station to his destination with a typical
"Cape Codder," one of those keen but
coast.

The Bostonian had noticed as they rode
viting fields and sandy strips of land, and
finally said to his companion:

plant schoolhouses and raise men."

for a trap and baited with a live bullock.

and promptly jumped into it.

To capture him a second pit was dug

this tunnel from a second pit. A trap
earth was broken down.

entranced to the cage was quickly closed,
and the beast was fast, and was to be seen in the cage.
